Additionally, the District will designate the investigator and/or decision-maker as a school official with a legitimate educational interest for accessing student records under the District's policy in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act.

- C. If the District requests a decision-maker, the District will provide the decision-maker with the investigation records, investigation report, final determination if applicable, and any other information the decision-maker is required to consider under the District's grievance process.

III. PAYMENT OF EXPENSES AND COSTS
